Moonlit shores and shimmering tides set the stage for an unforgettable escape, where laughter drifts on the warm night breeze and music lingers long after the last note is played. Lanterns sway gently between palm trees, casting golden light across the sand, while distant waves whisper secrets just out of reach. The staff are impeccable, the service flawless, and every guest is treated like

The table will be prepared. It always is. Food, drink, and all vessels of indulgence will be provided by The Feast Eternal Music will swell and pulse. The body will remember what it was made for.

Eat, and feel the hunger deepen.

Drink, and feel it sharpen.

Dance through the music of our Bards, and let yourself be worn thin in the doing. Here, pleasure is not comfort: it is sacrifice. Here, satisfaction is not the end: it is the beginning. Come. Sit. Be welcomed. Be undone. There is always room at the table. There is never enough to fill you. And when at last you feel yourself fading into something greater, do not resist. That is the Feast, welcoming you home.

Evening Event: The Thinning of the Mists

Title: The Thinning of the Mists

Type: Evening Activity

Affiliation: Voiaj Mereu

Event Lead(s):

- Morgana la Fae - Court of Chaos

Time & Date:

Saturday, April 25th 10:00 PM well into the night!

Location:

The Tavern and Village

Description:

As the night draws to a close, the world of Hynafol will shift.

For one night only, Morgana la Fae will thin the Mists, allowing the Fae of the Wyld to step fully into our realm. What was once distant and unseen will walk among you; watching, judging, and perhaps... playing.

During this time, the Courts of the Wyld will formally recognize the Courts of the Known World. A ritual will be held, and all are encouraged to witness this rare and significant moment.

Once the Mists have thinned, the evening transforms.

Strange happenings will unfold across the grounds:

- Fae games and challenges will appear
- Curious items may find their way into your hands... some less welcome than others
- Wandering Fae may test your wit, your luck, or your resolve
- Chaos, mischief, and unexpected encounters will be everywhere

Throughout the night, Courtly Hours will be held, where players may approach both the Fae of the Wyld and the Half-Fae of Hynafol:

- Seek favor
- Impress the Fae
- Bargain, perform, or be judged

At some point in the evening, an Auction will be held for those who wish to trade coin for rewards.

As you participate in the night's events, you may earn Fae Tokens. These tokens may later be exchanged for:

- Trinkets and curiosities
- Valuable rewards
- And perhaps... something far rarer

Among these rewards is a mysterious Fae Carta card, whose power is not yet known.

When the hour grows late, the Mists will begin to close, and a final opportunity will be given to exchange what you have earned.

Be watchful. Be bold. And tread carefully, for the Fae do not visit quietly.
